Filming in Northville

Did you catch the excitement when Scream 4 was recently filmed in The Next Chapter Bookstore & Bistro and on E. Main Street? Word has it that this movie will be at the theatres in April 2011.

Hollywood called again when The Double, with Richard Gere and Martin Sheen, was also filmed the end of July in private residences in Northville's Historic District.

Keep informed on what's next by visiting our new website, www.FilmFriendlyNorthville.com.

Buy Michigan Now™

Sundays at Mill Race Village
 August 1, 8, 15, 22, 29
 September 5, 12, 19, 26

Each Sunday afternoon mid-June to mid-October the historic buildings are open for public viewing. Costumed docents are on hand to inform visitors about the buildings, their contents, and about Northville's past.

Seven buildings, ranging from approximately 1831 to the 1890's, have carefully been moved from various parts of Northville to the scenic park land on Griswold Street; two more have been meticulously re-constructed with the aid of period photographs and plans.

Cady Inn ~ Country Store ~
 Hirsch Blacksmith Shop ~ Wash Oak School ~
 Hunter House ~ New School Church ~ Yerkes House
 ~ The Cottage House ~ The Interurban Station

Mill Race Village is open to all, and there is no admission charge. The grounds are open daily from sunrise to sunset; the buildings are open on Sunday afternoons from 1:00 - 4:00 pm.

Farmers' Market
 August 5, 12, 19, 26
 September 2, 9, 16, 23, 30

Make the Farmers' Market a weekly event to brighten up your garden, put a healthy meal on the table, or dress your table with fresh flowers. Everything you need is available at the Farmers' Market. Select from Michigan grown shrubs, annuals and perennials, tasty Michigan grown produce, honey, bakery goods, fine juried crafters, garden art, soaps, jewelry, furniture, woodworking, and home accessories.

Chefs at the Market

Great food ideas including cooking demonstrations by area chefs are available at the monthly Chefs at the Market. Each session includes a walk through the market to examine and choose fresh, locally grown, in-season produce. It continues with a cooking demonstration, a chat with the chef, samples and a recipe card to take home.

Chefs at the Market is free, just come by on the third Thursday of every month at 9:00am.

First Friday Art Walk Exhibits

The Northville Art House ~ Be a pART of it! The Northville Art House is pleased to announce Conversations in Cloth, an exhibition that showcases the vibrant and diverse work of local fiber artists. From abstract art quilts to three-dimensional sculpture, the show invites viewers to examine pre-conceptions about cloth and its use as form, not function. Artists include: Jill Ault, Mary Andrews, Mary Bajcz, Debra Danko, Cindy Geist, Mary York Gentry, Sonja Hagen, Donna Hamilton, Sue Holdaway-Heys, Pat Holly, Patricia Ingersoll, Gretchen Jackson, Barb Kilbourn, Carolyn King, Linda Larsen, Garland Lewis, Dee Segula, Joan Potter Thomas and Carol Wineman.

"Tropic" by Jill Ault

The show also includes the installation piece "The Enneagram" by artist Mary York Gentry, a masterful work that compels the audience to explore human personality from various perspectives.

"Painted Ponies" by Dee Segula

The show will open in our upper gallery with an artist reception Friday, August 6, from 6-9 p.m. and continue through August 28 during the Art House Gallery hours (Wednesday-Saturday, 1-5 p.m.). The Art House is a facility of the Northville Arts Commission. Admission to Art House shows is always free and open to the public.

Victorian Festival
September 17-18

Journey back through time to a simpler era with a visit to downtown Northville's 22nd annual Victorian Festival on September 17-19. Experience the art, history, and romance of the 1800s amid Northville's historic downtown district and tree-lined streets.

The festival begins with the traditional parade on Friday at 6:30pm and continues throughout the weekend. The streets will be closed to automobile traffic as townspeople, artists, and business owners turn back the clock and transform themselves into a Victorian Village complete with period costumes, storytellers, magicians, musical entertainment and demonstrations. Ryde Park features rides for kids and the Victorian Saloon (sponsored by Edward Jones) offers entertainment for adults.

Visitors can also enjoy a unique shopping experience in the many establishments in Northville, old-fashioned games, and food booths. Victorian Teas and Fashion Shows take place on Saturday at Northville's own historical village. Mill Race Village will host activities on Sunday. The festival is hosted by the Northville Chamber of Commerce and celebrates the town's special heritage.

Location: Downtown Northville
 Time: Friday (5:00pm - 10:30pm)
 Saturday (Noon - 10:30pm)
 Sunday (Noon - 4:00pm)

AAUW Home Tour September 18

Presented by the Northville-Novati American Association of University Women (AAUW), the home tour is always a Victorian Festival highlight.

Typically homes featured are widely different in architecture and interior design, span three centuries of construction and reflect how families have adapted to 21st century living in a community with a Victorian village at its heart. Joe Gagnon, the Appliance Doctor, will be answering questions at one home this year.

The home tour is a signature fund-raising event of AAUW which directs its support to advance education in the local, national and international community. One of the ongoing local commitments is annual scholarship contributions to Schoolcraft and Oakland County Community Colleges in addition to established endowments.
