DOWNTOWN Northville

Timeless with a twist

Welcome to the September edition of the Northville Times, proudly brought to you by the Northville Downtown Development Authority!

September is here, bringing plenty to look forward to in Downtown Northville! As summer winds down, we're welcoming a new season filled with shopping, dining, community events and plenty of downtown fun. From the Victorian Festival to the anticipation of Skeletons Are Alive returning in October, there's no better time to enjoy everything Downtown Northville has to offer. Keep reading to see what's happening this month!

Northville Art House

Saturday, September 19, 11 am – 2 pm | Painting with Paws

Bring your pet to The Northville Art House and unleash your pet's inner "Paw-casso" as our artists transform your pet's paw print into a one-of-a-kind keepsake artwork. $25 per dog, $30 at the event.

Alive in Spirit

Discover a new kind of fall experience for the whole family. Alive in Spirit blends the fun of Halloween with the meaning and traditions of Día de los Muertos in a vibrant, interactive celebration at the Northville Community Center.

Explore the building as each space comes to life with hands-on activities, festive décor and moments of discovery. Create meaningful keepsakes, enjoy face painting and photo opportunities, sample traditional foods and learn more about the traditions of remembrance and connection behind the celebration.

The experience continues outdoors with a softly lit remembrance walk connecting past and present, while families can contribute photos, notes and memories to a community remembrance display inside. Designed for all ages, Alive in Spirit offers a welcoming blend of creativity, culture and learning — and a whole new way to experience the season.

Date/Time: Thursday, October 22, 5:30–8 p.m.

Location: Northville Community Center

Memory Cafe Programs with the Northville Art House

The Northville Art House and Northville Senior Services are partnering to host a musical Memory Cafe this summer.

Join us at the Northville Community Center from 1:30-3:00 pm on the following Thursdays:

August 27
September 24 (at the Art House)
October 29
November 19
December 17

Each Memory Cafe includes a music-related artwork exploration, as well as a hands-on music workshop that incorporates singing, movement, playing instruments, and more!

While this is a free program, advanced registration is encouraged so we can be sure to have enough supplies. Register using this QR code.

Memory Cafes at the Art House are supported by a grant from CultureSource.

What is a Memory Cafe?

Memory Cafes are welcoming social gatherings for people living with changes in their memory or thinking, and the people who care about them. A Cafe is a place to have fun together, talk with others who understand what you're going through, and express yourself creatively by trying something new!

INTRODUCTION TO EDIBLE PLANTS HIKE

AUGUST 15TH, 2026
10:00 – 11:30 AM

MAYBURY STATE PARK
8 MILE ENTRANCE
TRAILHEAD BUILDING

Join us for an easy approximately 1-mile hike through unpaved trails in woods and fields at Maybury State Park. Learn to identify some easily recognizable edible wild plants, and know how to identify those plants you should avoid. Some plants can be eaten raw, some need to be cooked. Learn what you need to know to "eat wild." All ages welcome. No registration required. Dress for the weather and wear appropriate footwear. You may encounter insects, including ticks during the walk. This program will take place rain or shine.

This program is free, however a Recreation Passport is required for park entry. For further information on recreation passes, visit www.michigan.gov/recreationpassport

History of Maybury Sanatorium Hike

Maybury State Park
Trailhead Building (Eight Mile Entrance)
Saturday September 19th, 2026
10:00 am – 12:00 pm

Join us for a hike through the park highlighting its past. On the property are remnants of both early farms, and the Maybury Sanatorium, a tuberculosis sanatorium which was in operation until the late 1960s. The program starts at 10 AM with a short introduction and continues with a walk on paved and unpaved surfaces to the location of some of the former buildings. Dress for the weather as this event will take place rain or shine.

This program is FREE and no registration is required, however a Recreation Passport is required for park entry. For further information on recreation passes visit www.michigan.gov/recreationpassport
